Pankaj Oudhia

Abstract

Bhramarmar is valuable Traditional Medicine. Since time immemorial it is in use in treatment of different types of cancer. In order to protect its ever decreasing wild population from greedy eyes the Traditional Healers maintained suspense about it and this is the reason not much research work has been done by modern researchers on it. Bhramarmar is a popular Cancer Remedy among the Expert Healers but in Traditional Healing it is used in treatment of number of diseases. Although its natural population is present in few Indian states but it is an integral part of Healing in almost all corners of India. In different regions Bhramarmar is known by different names. Pankaj Oudhia has documented Traditional Medicinal Knowledge about Bhramarmar in its original form.
